

Henllys Success 2014

Henllys Golf Club have had their most successful year in their 18 year history.

Peter Maton, who is Director of Golf at Henllys, talked to us on the clubs achievements.

Winners of Dr Lowe shield (where all the clubs on Anglesey compete against each other)

Caernarfonshire & District 7 aside champions

Henllys Seniors won the Rawlinson Shield (The senior version of the Lowe Shield)

The scratch team qualified for the Welsh Team Championships Finals.

Daily mail 5 aside team reached the last 32 in the UK

Ian Owen won the Caernarfonshire & District handicap championship also the Henllys won best team

Mathew Rankenhohn won the Anglesey Golfing Union Matchplay Championship against another Henllys Member, Adam Warriner who was the defending champion.

Success is down to Henllys being a very friendly club to be a member of.

The course has been in excellent condition all year due to our Head Greenkeeper Mark Proctor

Membership has increased each year, which is against the normal story in golf clubs.....and we have many societies that come back year after year.

Henllys is owned by The Holiday Property Bond who are constantly investing in new machinery and course improvements.
